Regional Gatherings: On March 11, when the Board of Trustees met in Port Townsend, Wash. (a new residency location for the MFA in writing program), local alumni/ae met with Alumni/ae Director Sarah Hooker. They were very excited about Goddard expanding to the West Coast and were familiar with Centrum, the local arts and education center at Fort Worden State Park that hosts Goddard residencies.

On April 21, Baltimore alums Marlo (RUP '97) and Matt Saindon (RUP '98-'01) hosted Goddard graduates at the Clipper City Brewing Company, where Matt works. Sixteen alumni/ae enjoyed the event, capped off with a tour of the facility and beer tasting. David Hoffberger (ADP '81) took Alumni/ae Director Sarah Hooker to an Oriole's game.

Jim Feeney (RUP '64) and Joan Appel (ADP '77) organized a gathering on April 22 at the Philadelphia home of Philip Zuchman (GGP '73) and Deborah Gross-Zuchman (GGP '81). Several of the 13 alumni/ae who attended shared creative artwork. Alumni/ae Director Sarah Hooker and Dean of Finance Daryl Campbell gave updates on Goddard and enjoyed the hospitality of the Zuchmans.

3-D Map of Goddard: Teresa Stockman (RUP/IBA '03) gave Goddard the results of her final study: a three-dimensional relief map of the Greatwood Campus and Pratt Library. The 18- by 24-inch map is accurate to scale in its elevations and buildings, and it is intricately detailed. Next time you're on campus, check it out in the Alumni/ae Corner.

New Alumni/ae Publications: Two literary magazines have issues coming out—Tarpaulin Sky (www.tarpaulinsky.com), edited by Christian Peet (MFAW '03), and The Pitkin Review (web.goddard.edu/pitkin), edited by current MFA students.
