Getting Here

PLAINFIELD, VT CAMPUS

There are a number of ways to travel to the Goddard campus in Plainfield, Vermont. Driving is one of the most convenient methods, as it gives you more flexibility over your travel schedule and allows you to carpool. For those not driving, you can reach Vermont via train, bus, or air (Burlington International Airport). Goddard College is located in the Central Vermont town of Plainfield, about 10 miles east of the state capital of Montpelier, and 50 miles southeast of Burlington, the state's largest city.

Driving Directions

From the South

Take Interstate 89 north to exit 7, merging onto Rte. 62 east. Remain on Rte. 62 for about 1 mile and bear right onto the ramp toward Rte. 302 west/Rte. 2/Montpelier. Take the first left onto the Barre Montpelier Road/Rte. 302 and continue until you enter the next roundabout.

Take the 1st exit onto Rte. 2 east toward East Montpelier/ Plainfield. Follow Rte. 2 into East Montpelier and through the traffic light. Continue for about 3 miles and turn left on Rte. 214 just before entering Plainfield. The entrance to Goddard's main campus is the first road on your left. (If you use Interstate 89 exit 8, follow the directions from the north.)

From the East

Rte. 2 is a rural two-lane highway and can be followed west from as far away as Bangor, Maine. After entering Vermont on Rte. 2 you will travel through St. Johnsbury and Marshfield. Turn right at the next intersection on Rte. 214 north. The entrance to Goddard's main campus is the first road on your left.

From the North

Take Interstate 89 south to exit 8 (Montpelier/Rte. 2) merging onto Rte. 2 east. Travel through Montpelier and East Montpelier and just before entering Plainfield, turn left onto Rte. 214. The entrance to Goddard's main campus is the first road on your left.
